

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Sale of public day tickets for Singapore Airshow starts 20 November

Tweet @SGAirshow: The #SGAirshow 2016 experience will be enhanced with the debut of its e-store and seamless collection of public day tickets.

SINGAPORE, 19 November 2015 – Tickets for the Singapore Airshow 2016 public days will go on sale through SISTIC from Friday, 20 November 2015. The event, Asia's largest and one of the most important aerospace and defence exhibitions in the world, will be opened to the public on 20 and 21 February 2016 at the Changi Exhibition Centre (CEC). Singapore Airshow 2014, the fourth edition of the biennial show and its biggest yet, saw almost 100,000 visitors gathering at CEC over the two sell-out public days.

During the weekend public days, visitors can look forward to a wide range of exciting activities including some of the latest aircraft in the static aircraft display area and breathtaking flying displays from around the world.

Tickets for the Singapore Airshow 2016 are priced at S$22* for adults and S$9* for children between three and 12 years of age, and include a two-way Airshow Shuttle transfer from Singapore Expo. Admission is free for children below the age of three. Visitors to the Singapore Airshow 2016 will continue to enjoy a seamless one-stop security clearance at Singapore Expo before boarding the shuttle bus to CEC, for a faster and smoother experience.

As part of the focus on enhancing visitor experience, a group package will also be available for purchase. The group package includes four tickets, and a parking label which entitles the holder to full-day parking on the designated public day. With limited parking spaces at CEC and increasing numbers of visitors at each edition of Singapore Airshow, group package holders are guaranteed a parking space that offers convenient and faster access to the event, and more time to enjoy the range of activities scheduled at the Airshow.

* Excludes SISTIC booking fee of S$3 for adults and S$1 for children.

To make it even more convenient for visitors who purchase the group package, their tickets and parking label will be sent to them via registered mail (levied at a flat fee of S$3) to ensure that they receive these items before arriving at the Airshow.

Mr Leck Chet Lam, Managing Director of Experia Events, said: “The Singapore Airshow 2014 saw a record turnout on the two public days, and we would like to thank all Airshow fans for their tremendous support. We are continually seeking new ways to enhance the Airshow experience. We look forward to welcoming returning and new visitors alike at the upcoming Singapore Airshow.”

The Captain’s Den, a new e-store, will make it more convenient for visitors to purchase Airshow memorabilia including the ever-popular Captain Leo plush toys, Singapore Airshow’s official mascot. An expanded range of gifts including umbrellas, mugs and caps, will also be available.

Tickets to Singapore Airshow 2016 can be purchased through the official agent, SISTIC, at www.sistic.com.sg, via the ticketing hotline at 6348-5555 or at any SISTIC authorised outlets. Group packages can only be purchased from the SISTIC website or via its ticketing hotline.
